SPA HOTEL

KRYM

TRENČIANSKE TEPLICE SPA

belongs to the oldest and most popular spas in Slovakia.

This is mainly thanks to the unique natural sulphurous thermal spring, which streams into the pools at a perfect temperature, however, does not lose its quality when warmed up or cooled down.

The therapeutic care in the spa has a long-standing tradition; the first reference of its existence stems from the end of the 13th century.

The spa specialises in curing and prevention of disorders of the locomotive organs, conditions after surgeries and accidents, chronic rheumatic diseases, some civilisation illnesses, occupational diseases, but also those of the alimentary tract, metabolic illnesses, and gynaecological and skin diseases including psoriasis.

Apart from a thermal spring, the spa uses a wide variety of healing procedures in the field of balneology and therapeutic rehabilitation, as well as services of the easing nature.
